International presentation

The four international members of Council (Roger Wu, Catherine Davis, Alice Asafu-Adjaye and Tim Clark) gave a group presentation on the opportunities for increasing the RIBA's global reach, and indicated possible ways in which this might be achieved. These included:

- investment in locally active members;
- the development of a broader global offer to attract members
- enhanced relationships with overseas institutes;
- retention of members with UK links;
- the role of the RIBA in promoting lifelong learning.

Council members were invited to submit comments to VP International Chris Williamson and VP Membership Valeria Passetti.

Code of Professional Conduct - final report

Council approved the revised versions of the Codes of Professional Conduct and Practice, Appendix L (Disciplinary Procedures) and Appendix M (Guidance Notes on the Disciplinary Procedures) to the Regulations for publication and implementation. The President thanked the chair of the Conduct Review Task Force, Roger Shrimplin.

RIBA Finance

The year-end management accounts were noted.

Council approved a reserves policy in the light of the large surplus generated by the sale of equity in RIBA Enterprises.

Council approved the appointment of CH&Co as RIBA's catering partner, commencing 1 April 2019.
